

Module 1- Fairy Tales and Tall Tales Vocabulary charming, adj. Very pleasing or appealing displeases, adj. Feeling unhappy or bothered about something enchanted, adj. As if under a magic spell hesitated, adj. Stopped briefly before doing something might, n. Power to do something; force or strength curious, adj. Having a desire to learn more about something ignorant, adj. Lacking knowledge or information inspect, v. To look carefully at something intelligent, adj. Able to easily learn or understand things astonished, adj. Feeling or showing great surprise or amazement fearsome, adj. Causing fear or very frightening fortune, n. Great wealth or riches merchant, n. Someone who buys and sells goods constant, adj. Happening all the time, over a long period of time despite, adj. Without being stopped; anyway determined, adj. With strong feeling that you are going to do something sorrowful, adj. Feeling or showing great sadness admiration, n. A feeling of deep respect and liking colossal, adj. Unbelievably large or great frontier, n. The unsettled part of the American West inseparable, adj. Seemingly always together; not able to be separated energy, n. Power; the ability to be active persuaded, v. Caused to do something by asking, convincing, or arguing relaxed, v. Not tight or carefully controlled tame, v. To train to obey people challenge, n. A difficult task or problem compete, v. To try to be better than someone else at something feats, n. Achievements or deeds that require courage or strength solution, n. Something that solves a problem steam, n. The hot air and/or water droplets created when water is boiled mounted, v. To get on or climb up legendary, adj. Well-known; famous; like or having to do with a legend passengers, n. People traveling from one place to another in a car, bus, or train pride, adj. A feeling of respect for yourself